The Most Imposing Military Demoi stration There Since the Burial

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.-The funeral of General Emery Upton to-day was the largest military demonstration since the obseques of General Canby. Three thousand sabers and muskets were in line. The ceremony began at Presidio, where at 2 p.m. the cemains were received with honors and escorted by the Fourth artillery, 600 strong, then taken to VanNess avenue, where the Brigadier-General McComb commanding, met the corpse and escorted it to the Washington wharf. At that point the body was put on board the government tug General McPherson and taken to Oakland wharf with a guard of honor from the Fourth artillery. The remains will be guarded to-night, and forwarded east under charge of Captains Fourth artillery.
